

Blaine Guthrie

Mrs Fern-Denzer

Language 3rd Hour

February 2, 2016

Best Philly Cheesesteaks

Have you ever wondered what a great tasting and a delicious Philly cheese steaks taste like? I will tell you about my amazing experience at the restaurant Sonny's in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The reason I picked this restaurant is because of its mouth-watering Philly Cheesesteaks.

When I went to Sonny's, their menu wasn't huge but still had a plethora of choices to pick from. They had their regular cheesesteaks, with a choice of cheese, bacon, and my favorite the cheese steak hoagie. The hoagie was packed with; lettuce, tomatoes, red onions, mayo, and choice of cheese. I liked their very casual looking restaurant. When I walked in there was a big menu and lot of posters. Sonny's had great service, cleaning every table after someone had been sitting there.

One downside of my experience there at Sonny's was the line. We waited in line for about 10 minutes, but that was expected because of the great food Sonny's has provided to its customers. When we ordered, I got a cheesesteak hoagie with everything! When we had got our food, the and the polite cleaning lady had got done cleaning our table. When we sat down, I started with their bacon cheese fries. After I had a few delectable cheesy fries, I opened up my delicious cheese steak. The bread was warm but not burnt from the stove. I couldn't help to notice that the steak and cheese juices dripping out of my hoagie! I could taste all of the components that made up the hoagie, what I still remember about the dripping cheese mixed with the meat. My taste

Besides the fact that Sonny's had great cheesesteaks, I wish would have tried some of their menu items such as; Bacon Bleu Cheese Burger, and a bacon, Pepperoni or Ribeye Grilled Cheese. I really wish there was a Sonny's close to the midwest, but if there was a Sonny's around this area it probably wouldn't have made this experience so memorable.

For all of the Philly Cheesesteak places I have been to, Sonny's to me has been the best, With their hospitality and great food! I hope someday you can visit Sonny's too.

Thanks For Your Time,

Blaine Guthrie

Blaine Guthrie